

Miami University Report on Hazing Violations – January 2025

Pursuant to Ohio’s Collin’s Law (Ohio Revised Code Section 3345.19(D)), Miami University has prepared this report to document all organizational hazing violations from the past five years prior to January 1, 2025.

In accordance with the Ohio Revised Code, each hazing violation lists the following information: (a) the name of the subject of the report; (b) the date when the subject of the report was charged with a hazing violation; (c) a general description of the violation, as well as any investigation, findings, or penalties imposed, and (d) the date on which the matter was resolved. As is provided in the Ohio Revised Code, this report does not include any personal identifying information of any individuals.

This report shall be updated on a biannual basis in January and August of each year. Violations are organized by organization name.

Alpha Sigma Phi

- The matter was investigated, and the organization was charged with hazing on April 30,

- Organization placed on disciplinary probation from October 16, 2023 through October 17, 2023. Members must attend hazing education sessions, meet regularly with their club advisor, and the organization must develop a risk management plan.

Dance Team (Miami University Dance Team)

- The matter was investigated, and the organization was charged with hazing on May 3, 2023. The organization accepted responsibility for a hazing violation on May 18, 2023. Appeal was exhausted on May 25, 2023.
- The organization accepted responsibility for the following conduct: that new members were required to participate in a mandatory “fun night,” which included a scavenger hunt that involved tasks such as taking items from fraternity houses, making out with guys, taking nude pictures, and forcing new members to go to local bars.
- Organization placed on disciplinary probation from May 18, 2023 through May 31, 2026. Members are required to attend hazing education, and the organization is required to develop a risk management plan and attend follow-up meetings with University officials.

Delta Sigma Phi

- The matter was investigated, and the organization was charged with hazing on April 6, 2023. The organization accepted responsibility for a hazing violation on April 27, 2023. Appeal was exhausted on May 18, 2023.
- The organization accepted responsibility for the following conduct: that new members